National Convention News!

The Conservative Party of Canada is holding a National Policy Convention in Ottawa on June 9-11, 2011. Delegates to the Convention are responsible for amending the constitution, adopting and amending party policy, and electing a National Council. On February 3, 2011, the EDA held its Delegate Selection Committee and is sending Ken Morgan (EDA President), Marty Burke (Guelph's Conservative candidate), Andrew Prescott, John Stevens, John White, Trish Burke, Greg Dunlop, Amanda Brodhagen, Victor Santiago, Matt Sheehy, Gloria Kovach, and Michael Sona. Individuals who are members of the Conservative Party can attend as observers with no voting privileges. Details are at www.cpcconvention.ca/info/faq#Q1.

More Conservatives at UoG!

Conservative strength is growing broadly among women, ethnic groups and students across Canada. In Guelph, this is most evident among university students. Campus conservatives are increasing in numbers, have been very active this year, and will be a major help to our candidate, Marty Burke, during the next federal election campaign! Right now, they are focusing on going door-to-door with him as he canvasses around Guelph.

MEMBERS DONATE, MARTY DELIVERS!

On December 24, 2010, Marty delivered 15 turkeys to three nonprofit organizations: Sister Christine’s Drop-In Centre, the Salvation Army, and Hopewell House. These turkeys were paid for by local Conservative Party members who bought them during the EDA’s Annual Turkey Drive fundraiser and asked that they be delivered to Sister Christine’s Drop-in Centre and other organizations to help those most in need at Christmas - the homeless, low-income families, and children.

EXCERPTS FROM MARTY’S INTRODUCTION OF TIM HUDAK AT THE SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD DINNER ON JAN.13, 2011

In 1966, when (my family) moved to Canada, the Pearson Liberal government was in power. For much of the next 40 years...Canadian priorities were replaced by Liberal priorities...and Canadian values were replaced by Liberal values. ...In 2006 Canadians finally got a government which removed their nagging doubts about the direction their country was taking. Finally, we got a government that reflected Canadians’ hopes and beliefs. We got a government led by a normal middle class guy - not a millionaire lawyer from Quebec or an out-of-touch foreign-based academic. .. Despite all the liberal brainwashing over the years, Canadians never forgot one thing and that is that Canada is a small “c” conservative country. ...This is why I have such high hopes for the future of the Federal Conservative Party and the Progressive Conservative Party of Ontario. We live in a conservative country that is becoming more conservative all the time.... We just need to get conservatives to recognize that they are, in fact, conservatives.
